

ture or form they may be, and all and every other matter or thing to do therein, in as full and effectual a manner as any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate within this State, in like causes, may or can do or perform, and the said trustees, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to have, make and use one common seal, with such devices and inscriptions as they shall think proper, and therewith to pass and authenticate the certificates, acts and orders of the said corporation and the same seal, at their pleasure to break, alter or renew. CHAP. 257.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That an election for trustees shall be held on the first Monday of July, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, and on the first Monday in every succeeding July thereafter at the said seminary, which said election shall be by ballot and conducted as follows, to wit:—every subscriber to said institution shall be allowed one vote for each and every scholar, by him or her subscribed at the time of the said election, and the seven persons having a majority of votes shall be declared the trustees for the ensuing year. Seal
Annual elections

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, shall have full power and authority to constitute and appoint in such manner as they shall think best and most convenient, female teachers and assistants for instructing the scholars and pupils of said seminary, in such branches of education as they shall think proper and suitable to be taught therein, and to make fundamental ordinances or regulations, for the good government of the said seminary, and the instruction of the scholars as aforesaid, and by their ordinances to appoint such a number of their own body, not less than four, as they may think proper to be a committee, for the transacting all general and necessary business of the said seminary, and making temporary rules for the management thereof, and also by the said ordinances to delegate to the female teacher or teachers, such power and authority as they shall think expedient for the execution of the regulations of the same, and also by the said ordinances to make such Employ teachers
Committee of business